

COLD-BLOODED MURDER IN RICHMOND MONDAY

Brack Maupin Shoots James Farris To Death on Street and Then Cuts His Throat

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 7.—Brack Maupin, one of the best-known farmers in Madison county shot and killed James Farris, of Lawrenceburg, here this morning. After Farris had fallen with three bullets in his body, Maupin in his madness sprang onto his victim with a pocket knife and besides cutting his throat from ear to ear, stabbed him in several places before bystanders could get him off. Farris' death was apparently instantaneous.

Maupin immediately surrendered to officers and was allowed to stay in the jail corridor under guard of his friends.

He would not make a statement for the press, but the trouble is understood to be the result of an old grudge.

The dead man formerly lived in this county, where he owns a large farm near Kingston, but moved to Lawrenceburg some years ago, where he had been engaged in the revenue service.

Lincoln County Man Describes

The Murder as he Saw It.

Several Lincoln county men, who were in Richmond, Monday, which was court day there, saw the killing. For a while the report was current here that the man killed was former Senator George Farris, of Lancaster, who is now special messenger for Governor McCreary at Frankfort. But this report was soon found to be untrue.

Wm. Maupin, of the Dripping Springs section, and who says he is a second cousin of the man who did the killing, returned to Stanford from Richmond on the 2:40 train, and gave a full description of the unfortunate affair, of which he was an eye witness. He said that he did not personally know Brack Maupin, but knew him to be his cousin. He described the tragedy to a group of interested listeners when he got off the train here. Mr. Maupin said:

"I was standing near the livery stable just this side of the court house, when I heard Brack Maupin, who was standing near me, say 'There he goes now. I guess this is about as good a chance as I will have to get him.' With this remark, he ran his hand into his hip pocket and pulled out a pistol, then he walked up behind the man who, I was afterward told, was named Farris, and jerked him around. Farris threw up his hands and exclaimed:

"For God's sake don't kill me, Brack!"

"However, Brack's only reply was to pull the trigger and shoot Farris once in the chest. Farris started to run, and Brack fired again four times at his back. Farris fell to the pavement, and Maupin then went up to him, and looked at him and said 'I may not have finished you, so I'll make sure of it,' and with that he jerked a knife out of his pocket and jabbed the blade through Farris' throat."

"There was a big crowd on the streets, and four policemen quickly went after Brack Maupin. He fought them off, and got away from two of them, while trying to reload his pistol, but they were too many for him, and overpowered him."

"There was a big crowd on the streets, and I reckon as many as two or three hundred people who were in that part of Richmond at the time must have seen the killing. The intense excitement prevailed for a while after the killing, as few were able to discover what the trouble between the men had been. I know nothing of the trouble between them; in fact I had known neither, although cognizant of the fact that Brack Maupin was my second cousin."

The Maupins are said to be a large and influential family in that section, and it is said will make a hard fight to get Brack Maupin out of the trouble. Just what the old grudge between him and Farris was, has not been cleared up yet, but it is said to date back ten or twelve years, to the time when Farris lived in Madison, and it is reported that the two men had some disagreement over a boundary fence.

Lincoln Mens Take Thrd Prizes

The Louisville Post's big egg laying contest, which has been in progress for the past six months, came to an end Saturday. The two Lincoln county contestants won third honors in each of the classes in which they exhibited. A. C. Alford's pen of White Leghorn hens were third 421 eggs laid, to 509 for the winner and 435 for the second pen. Mrs. S. J. Embury's pen of Buff Orpingtons were also third, laying 290 eggs to 381 for the winner and 327 for the second pen. Both pens made excellent showings, all things considered. Their owners are two of the most prominent poultry fanciers in Lincoln county, and feel well repaid for making the exhibit. The contest was held at the large farm of Senator Paynter near Frankfort.

Thirty Candidates Baptized

Thirty candidates were baptized at the lake in Crab Orchard Sunday by Rev. Denolon, pastor of the Christian church. They made the good profession at revival services which were held at the Christian church there by Rev. Christopher, pastor of the Chestnut street Christian church of Lexington, who recently also held a fine meeting at Turnersville. The Crab Orchard church was greatly enthused and awakened by the splendid meeting. A large number of people witnessed the baptismal ceremony.

High School News.

(By James Comer.)
Mr. Ewald Givens '13 was absent from school a few days last week on account of sickness.

The first month of our school this term has passed, and much has been accomplished in our room and just as much in each one of the grades. Societies of all kinds have been formed, and many new things have been added to our school. The sanitary drinking cups which have been placed in each room recently are useful as well as healthful. Our school will always welcome any patrons who wish to come and see for themselves the new additions to our school.

Miss Maude Arnold, '16 was out of school some last week.
Miss Elizabeth Humm and Miss Bessie Brackett both of class '16, did not attend school for a day or two last week.

A merry crowd walked out to Miss Verma Hunt's home last Friday night, and enjoyed themselves very much. Miss Hunt is the hostess of many entertainments and each one is enjoyed more than the former one. The first meeting of the Debating Society was held last Friday and it was fully enjoyed by each member. The society was opened by a short speech from the president, Mr. Joseph Hill, '13, followed by the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Miss Josephine Carpenter, '14. Mr. Ireland acted as judge of the debates.

The subject of the debate was: "Resolved that Longfellow was a Greater Writer than Tennyson." Miss Annie Milburn was the first debater on the affirmative side, while Miss Ella Warren was the first on the negative side. Then Mr. William Grimes spoke as the second affirmative followed by Mr. Clinton Coleman on the negative side. Mr. Thomas Coleman was the third affirmative and Miss Marion Grimes third negative. Miss Sallie M. Craig was the last speaker on the affirmative and Mr. Harry Reinhardt was the last on the negative side. Mr. Ireland's decision was the negatives, 14 points and the affirmatives 10. All the debates were good, and enjoyed by all.

The Literary Society was called to order at 2:30 on last Friday afternoon by President Jesse Harker. The roll having been called the whole society sang America. We were then favored with a recitation by the talented Miss Gertrude Thines. The musical numbers of the program were all enjoyed. The debate: Resolved that Immigration is detrimental to the U. S. was not quite as interesting as it would have been if one of the contestants had not been absent, consequently no judges were appointed. A few visitors were present at our opening program.

This seems most unfortunate since the meeting was beginning to make some headway and enthusiasm was increasing with a fruitful harvest in sight.

There was an excursion at High Bridge Sunday and Powell had gone down with a party from Wilmore. He was on the edge of the precipice when he suddenly fell backward. He struck feet foremost on a ledge about twenty-five feet down and, bouncing off, tumbled over and plunged head foremost to the ground, 250 feet below.

C. U. Preps Here Friday

The C. U. Prep foot ball team of Danville, will meet the Stanford High School eleven on the grounds here next Friday afternoon. The local boys have a much better line-up this season than had been expected, since most of the stars of the past two or three seasons had left school. It seems likely that Stanford is going to have a very fair gridiron representation, and some good work is expected.

Lincoln Man's Brother-in-Law Killed

Wm. Franklin, a prominent young farmer, out on the Danville pike, is much distressed over the tragic death of his brother-in-law, Tracey Duncan in Harrison county recently. He was set upon by three men in his store and stabbed to death, 16 gashes being found in his body. The assailants of Duncan are said to have become enraged at him over a difference in the price made in selling flour. They were held to the grand jury without bond.

To Urge Phillips Bros

To Complete Concrete Pavements
At a meeting of the city council Thursday night considerable routine business was transacted and a committee was appointed to urge the completion of the concrete pavements by Phillips Bros. It is hoped that they will get busy and finish up the work as the torn up pavements cause much inconvenience to pedestrians and give the town a most unsightly appearance. And, too, cold weather is not far off and it might get too cold to do the work before spring, if they do not get a move on themselves.

Enjoyed Chestnut Hunt.

Some twenty-five or thirty members of the eighth grade of the Stanford Graded School spent Saturday chestnut hunting in the Coffey school-house section. They all went out in a two-horse wagon and spent the day most enjoyably. Each of the young people took a lunch and when all the lunches were put into one big one it was a repeat fit for the Gods! They got all the chestnuts they wanted to eat but very few of them remembered the folks at home with even a small sample.

Gadhery, a well known and capable young man of Casey county, has been elected cashier of the Waynesburg Deposit Bank to succeed young Mr. Mobley, who had to give up the place on account of his health. GARRARD YOUNG MAN DIES OF HYDROPHOBIA

Ed S. Elam Scratched or Bitten By Negro And Develops Rabies. Physicians Say.

Ed S. Elam, a prominent young farmer of the Spawney section, of Garrard county, died at his home Sunday morning, of what many of the physicians who saw him diagnosed as a virulent case of hydrophobia. The young man is said to have been bitten or scratched by a negro in an altercation in which the two became engaged at the farm of Dave Dudderar, near the Lincoln county line, about two weeks ago. Little attention was paid to the injury at the time.

About a week ago, however, the early symptoms of rabies developed, it is said, though the physicians did not at the time suspect that it was such, merely thinking that the young man was developing a heavy fever. When it was too late to give the Pasteur treatment, it was recognized as rabies, and the death of the young man is said to have removed all doubt as to the character of the ailment of which he was a victim.

Calvin Elam, a brother of the unfortunate boy, was killed by a live wire in Paris a short time ago.

Young Elam was just 21 years of age and was well esteemed and liked by all who knew him. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elam. The affair with the negro farm hand is said to have been a trifling affair, and nothing was thought of it at the time. When he first became sick, it was thought that he was suffering from a severe fever, and he was given every attention by the physicians called and the most careful of nursing. When the infection became fully developed, a number of the physicians still thought that it was a sort of blood poisoning, but the most of them diagnosed it as an undoubted attack of rabies. Several Stanford physicians were informed of the symptoms by their brethren of Lancaster, and say that from what they were told they believe that young Elam was the victim of rabies.

The funeral of the young man was held from the family residence Monday afternoon, with interment in the Goslen cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of a large number of friends in their grief.

MRS. LANE FINED $300

Danville Woman Who Killed her Husband Gets Off Easy.

Danville, Ky., Oct. 5.—The jury trying Mrs. Helen Lane for the killing of her husband brought in a verdict Saturday afternoon, fixing a fine of $300 against her. Guilty of manslaughter was the verdict returned by the jury.

Lane secured a divorce from a former wife at Somerset on the morning before the killing, and the killing and the trouble that led to his death came up over the discovery of the Mrs. Lane at Somerset on the part of Mrs. Lane in Danville. Nine of the jurors stood for acquittal and three for a penitentiary sentence at first.

Mrs. Lane told her story on the stand Friday night. In an effort to support herself when she first came to Danville, she had sold silverware about the city, canvassing from house to house. Later she rented the little cottage on Beatty avenue near Beddow's restaurant and engaged in taking roomers as a means of earning a living. Last April Charles Lane took a room with her. He soon proceeded to make love to his landlady, and in June they were united in marriage in Lexington.

All the while Lane had another wife at Somerset, to whom he was married eight years ago and with whom he lived only two days. She filed suit for divorce upon his marriage to his last wife and when the sheriff of Boyle county served a summons on him to appear in the Pulaski circuit court, he told his last wife that he owed some old costs at Somerset and would have to go there and settle same. While there his Somerset wife secured a divorce.

Upon his return to Danville he told Mrs. Lane they would have to be married again. He further told her that he had just gotten a divorce from his other wife at Somerset and that as a matter of fact they had never been legally married. This enraged Mrs. Lane and she declared she would take her marriage certificate to Lawyer Harding and see what could be done. Then Lane cursed and abused her, according to her story, and threatened to kill her. He was trying to take the pistol away from her when she shot him. Both Mrs. Lane and Mr. Lane used very vile epithets. She claimed that she was compelled to kill Lane to save her own life and to protect her honor and virtue.

Taft's Brand of Prosperity.

Senator-elect Ollie James, who is one of the democratic mainstays on the stump in the debatable states, made a telling speech at Vincennes, Indiana, this week, in which he made this telling point: "Taft is left-handed in both hands. He has furnished the most melancholy administration in the history of the American people. He is the only President in the history of this great republic that ever vetoed a bill that cheapened clothing to the shivering poor."

Judge Kerr, of Lexington, in commenting on the Lane case at Danville, says he judges husbands must be worth only $300 in Kentucky now. Some we know around here won't appraise over 30 cents.

The Bull Moosers registered 100 more votes in Danville than the Taftites. It's a toss-up which gets the most votes in Kentucky.

Cause of High Cost of Living

The Republicans and the Bull Moosers try to make the people believe that there is no connection between the excessive tariff and the high cost of living. Moody's Magazine, an authority on economics, prints a table to show that in ten years prices only increased 7.7 per cent, in Europe, while in America the average was 34.3 per cent, with the prices on some articles increased over 100 per cent. The tariff and the trusts are chiefly responsible for the high cost of living. Vote for Wilson, Marshall and the Democratic nominee for Congress with assurance of a reduction of the one and the subjection of the others to the laws of the land, instead of being a law unto themselves.

A Prophet Without Honor

President Taft says that the Democratic policy as to the tariff will put an end to prosperity, shut down the mills and factories and produce a panic worse than that of 1907. But this prophet of evil is joined to his idol of a high protective tariff, which he claims is the cause of the country's great prosperity, whereas, as a matter of fact it is in spite of it. Prosperity is due to record breaking crops and other natural causes. To tax the people for the benefit of the trusts and not to pay the expenses of the government economically administered is a crime. The people have stood it as long as possible and have determined to punish those responsible for it by electing a Democratic president and a democratic Congress.

The belief is general that Wilson and Marshall will be elected. This confidence however, may prove our undoing. Democrats should not, however, be confident to the extent of relaxing any effort. Get busy and keep very busy until the election booths close.

General apathy has lost many a fight. Kentucky can give the Democratic ticket 100,000 plurality, but she won't do it if the voters take anything for granted. Let every Democrat don his fighting clothes and remain on guard until the evening of November 5th.

Wilson Stands For a Principle— Will You Stand By Him?

Woodrow Wilson is a vastly different order of man than you find among the ranks of many good men in practical political life.

Woodrow Wilson is not among the great majority of politicians and business men, otherwise estimable characters, who believe that the end justifies the means, who are honest in a commercial or political sense.

The candidate of the progressive voters of the country not only does not believe in the doctrine of "anything to win," but he insists on plain old fashioned honesty in every detail of his campaign.

Woodrow Wilson proposes to win on the merits of his candidacy and platform or not at all.

"Clean hands or no fight" is Wilson's ultimatum to his supporters throughout the country.

No Tainted Money For Wilson

Not a dollar of questionable money will be spent to elect Woodrow Wilson.

The Democratic National Committee is heart and soul in accord with the candidate's views.

And the corrupting influences, with no political faith, casting about to win a foothold in the new government with bribes of ill-gotten gains, have despaired of reaching Wilson or his campaigners.

They have gone to the enemy, whoever that enemy may be. matter of common knowledge that the "Interests" are using all their political funds to defeat Wilson.

This makes it your fight.

What the American People Need to Know

The people have constantly made the mistake of believing that this is a money-ridden nation.

Such is only the case insofar as the People fail to get together and so permit the few to control the dishonest representatives they, by mistake, elect to office.

The actual money power of the People is still greater than that of the Interests.

The Progressive People of the country, if they get together, can buy and sell the Corrupting Influences and destroy their financial power.

So Woodrow Wilson and his managers believe that not only is it the only clean method but the most practical method for the Progressive People of the country to supply the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund.

The People to Fight With THEIR Dollars

This year a popular president is to be elected with the People's money.

The Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund is to be collected from the rank and file of the Progressive Voters of the country.

The bills of the Democratic National Committee are to be paid, not with the thousands of the Interests, but with the individual dollars of the earnest, eager voters who desire clean, efficient government and who are willing to help Wilson as he wants to be helped.

Money thus needed is not spent in improper ways or in any manner similar to the way in which the funds of the Interests are disbursed.

But we have to tell the voters of the country about Woodrow Wilson. We have to tell them what he has done. We have to tell them what he stands for. We have to point out to them the important planks in his platform. All this means that to hold up our end we will be obliged to spend as much money as those who oppose us.

This means that every man or woman who believes in Wilson should be willing to contribute to his cause. Let the supporters of Wilson help us to spread the Wilson gospel to the four winds.

Let the Progressive Voters battle this year with their pocketbooks as well as their ballots.

We Solicit Popular Subscriptions—Can You Give From $1 to $20?

Of course, you can—and you are glad to support the cause in this way. Practically every voter can afford to give $1 to aid the Wilson Campaign. A great many can give $2. A great many can give $5. And there are lots and lots of progressive voters who will be eager to donate from $10 to $20.

These are the kind of contributions we want.

And we will be proud to receive from thousands, who can only afford $1, their $1 contributions. We want to hear from every man who has a dollar to give.

This year the man with the dollar must defeat the government traducer who spends his thousands.

Get Club Subscriptions

If you know many Wilson men, if you work among many Wilson men, head a list with your name and money and get the others to join you with their subscriptions.

Then send your list with the money to C. R. Crane, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

No loyal Wilson man can do more than this to assure Wilson's victory at the polls in November.

Pe-ru-na and Ka-tar-no

I have received a letter from a young lady, who asks me: "Is the old Pe-ru-na (Ka-tar-no) better than the revised Pe-ru-na?"

Either medicine has its place. One is adapted for one condition, another for another.

Ka-tar-no is a better remedy for some conditions than the revised Pe-ru-na.

On the other hand, the revised Pe-ru-na is a better remedy for some conditions than Ka-tar-no. They are both indicated as catarrh remedies. They have both done a great work in relieving catarrh, chronic and acute. Many hundreds of cases of chronic catarrh have recovered while taking Ka-tar-no and the same is true of the revised Pe-ru-na during the last six years since its revision.

There is a difference, however, in the two remedies. Whenever catarrh is associated with constipation then the revised Pe-ru-na is the best. Indeed, this is exactly why the revision was made, to meet such cases. But where no laxative is needed, where the bowels are regular or inclined to be loose, then the old Pe-ru-na (Ka-tar-no) is the better remedy.

The revised Pe-ru-na is for sale at all drug stores. Those wishing to obtain Ka-tar-no, please The Ka-tar-no Co., Columbus, Ohio.

A Severe Sickness Leaves The Kidneys Weak

After recovering from a severe spell of sickness some time ago, I was all run down and suffering from poor blood. I would have pains in my back and hips and my kidneys bothered me all the time I started taking Swamp-Root upon the recommendation of a friend and found it was just what I needed. My blood became all right and after taking a few bottles, I was surprised at the effect it had on my kidneys. They were entirely cured and I have much to be thankful for that your great remedy did for me.

Yours very truly,

COMMON SENSE!

To use good judgment in business we know means success. We believe Stanford and Lincoln County will support a live Ladies' Ready-Made Garment Department in our store, and in order to do this we must have your patronage. The advantages are not all ours, as 'tis quite a convenience to have brought to your door the most exclusive styles of the New York makers and at prices less than cities and larger towns ask. We have many exclusive garments that we buy only one of and will not duplicate, that the buyer will not fear seeing the same garment on the street. Our selections are from a number of makers and the line is as varied as one could ask. We want you to come and look as many times as you like. You don't have to hurry (and repent a season) but take the garment home, inspect it carefully; keep it if you like, return it if you don't like it.

Our object is not to sell you once but to make you a loyal customer by being loyal to you in regard to the quality we offer and the prices we ask.

The I. J. Like a Letter From Home

The following from our old friend and former countryman, M. G. Reynolds, was received a few days ago. Mr. Reynolds has done well since he located in Stanford county, Kansas, but like all who leave Lincoln county, he is anxious to keep posted on what his friends here are doing and he knows no better way of doing so than by keeping his Interior Journal paid in advance:

St. John, Kas., Oct. 3, 1912

Dear Interior Journal:—

You will find enclosed $1 for which please credit my account on subscription. I can't afford to have the I. J. stop, as it is just like a letter from home.

The farmers here are very busy just now sowing wheat. The ground is in much better condition for seeding than last year. Corn is very good. A large acreage in this vicinity. The horse disease, or plague that has proven so fatal to Kansas horses, seems to be dying out. Have not heard of any new cases in this vicinity for a few days. Safford county was not hit as hard by the strange disease as were the counties west, only about 200 have died in this county, it is claimed.

FARM AT PUBLIC SALE

I will sell at public auction on Saturday, November 9, 1912

in front of the court house at Stanford, Ky., my farm of about 55 acres, located on the waters of Knob Lick, two miles south of Junction City bordering on the Cincinnati Southern railway and near Bowen Station, Lincoln county, Ky. There are about 35 acres in woods, the balance for cultivation about 20 acres, in timothy grass. It has a good house of three large rooms, good fence around garden and yard, also some fruit trees, creek running through place and can strike water in 12 feet almost anywhere on the farm. It is a fine place for sheep and calves and would make a fine dairy and poultry farm. No better place could be had anywhere close to the pike and school and market. Any man looking for a good cheap home should buy this place. It is in good condition. The last crops were all good, and it will raise tobacco and corn, oats, millet, brings fine clover anywhere on the place. All under fence. Possession given at once. Now is your chance for a good home cheap.

Terms.—Cash, or one-half cash and the balance in one and two years, secured by lien on bankable note and bearing 6 per cent interest from date of deed until paid. I will furnish good abstract and good warranty deed.

I desire to sell my property as I cannot see to things back there. I will be present on day of sale.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood. The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema, and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema."

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a 11 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.
